

PIONEER INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

ACADEMIC YEAR: 2020/2021

SEMESTER: JAN-APRIL 2022

CODE: BAIR 3110

UNIT: THEORIES AND IDEOLOGIES IN IR

DATE: APRIL 2022

TIME: 2 HOURS

SECTION A: COMPULSORY (30 MARKS)

QUESTION ONE:

- a) State five assumptions of Feminist Theory in International Relations. (5 Marks)
- b) Deliberate on the role of Feminism in addressing the gender dynamics within the discourse of international relations. (10 Marks)
- c) Expound on the Marxist theoretical approach in International Relations. (15Marks)

SECTION B: CHOOSE ONE QUESTION (20 Marks)

QUESTION TWO:

- a) Hans Morgenthau's six principles of Realism are taken as building blocks in the field of international relations. Name these principles. (5 Marks)
- b) As an offshoot of World System Theory, assess the contribution of Dependency Theory in International Relations. (15 Marks)

QUESTION THREE:

Examine with specific examples the concept and role of an "international regime" and evaluate its significance within the international system. (20 Marks)

SECTION C: CHOOSE ONE QUESTION (20 Marks)

QUESTION FOUR:

Discuss the theory of International Political Economy and show its nexus between economy and politics. (20 Marks)

QUESTION FIVE:

The essence of liberalism is that anarchy can be mitigated or overcome. There are several approaches in international relations that offer some hope for such progress. With empirical support, assess two of these approaches. (20 Marks)

